MAKING A CLAIM

What to do if you need to make a claim

- take all reasonable precautions to prevent or reduce loss or damage to your vehicle;
- immediately report the incident or loss to the police where the accident or loss must be reported by law or this policy; and
- report the incident as soon as possible by calling our claims team on 1800 258 249.

- admit guilt, liability or blame;
- offer to pay for or negotiate any damages arising from the event;
- approve any repairs or arrange replacements other than emergency repairs up to $1,000 (see page 8) which are necessary to minimise or prevent further loss and damage.

If you fail to assist us, or do not comply with any of these terms, we may reduce or refuse to pay your claim or be entitled to recover from you any monies paid by us in relation to the claim. Where we have a right to reduce or refuse to pay your claim you may make a submission to us explaining why it would be unfair or unreasonable for us to do so. We will not rely on a right to reduce or refuse your claim if it would be unfair to do so.

Additional actions

We may require you to:

- undergo interviews and appear in court and give evidence under oath;
- arrange for any driver of your vehicle to give us full co-operation in all respects and provide us with the same assistance that you are required to;
- help us manage the claim by answering our questions and/or providing written statements to us under oath;
- allow us to inspect your vehicle or any damaged goods you are claiming for;
- take your vehicle to or allow it to be towed to a place nominated by us;

If you fail to assist us, or do not comply with any of these terms, we may reduce or refuse to pay your claim or be entitled to recover from you any monies already paid under the claim.

Costs of dismantling, diagnosis and reassembly

If you make a claim, we may require you to authorise the dismantling of your vehicle or to authorise us to dismantle it, so that we can assess your claim and/or decide if it is valid. We may refuse to assess or pay your claim if you do not agree to this.

If we determine that the claimed loss or damage is not covered, you will be responsible for the costs of the above dismantling as well as any costs associated with it (including but not limited to any diagnosis, reassembly, repair, and/or replacement costs).

If we determine that the claimed loss or damage is covered, we will settle your claim in accordance with the terms and conditions of the policy (including the operation of any excess).

What happens if we settle the claim for your vehicle on a total loss basis?

If we determine that your vehicle is a total loss, we will pay the value as shown on the Certificate of Insurance. The value may be agreed value or market value.

We will:

- deduct any excess that may be applicable;
- deduct any outstanding premium for the period of insurance;
- deduct any unused portion of your registration fee and Compulsory Third Party insurance premium; and
- retain your vehicle including all accessories and modifications (if you have elected to reject first right to buy it back at our determined price);

then:

- the policy comes to an end; and
- there is no refund of any portion of the premium.

Fraudulent and dishonest claims

If you or any person acting on your behalf submits to us a claim or any information or documentation relating to a claim, which is in any way fraudulent or dishonest, we may refuse to pay the entire claim and cancel the policy as permitted by law.

Prevention of loss

You are legally obliged to take reasonable steps to prevent or reduce the risk or possibility of loss. If you intentionally take any risk that results in a loss being suffered, you may forfeit the right to make a claim under the policy.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

All insured amounts shown in the policy are in Australian Dollars and include Goods and Services Tax (GST). When you claim under the policy with us, all amounts we pay will be inclusive of GST, up to the maximum claim amount shown in the policy.

If you are registered for GST purposes, we will reduce any claimed amounts paid to you by the appropriate input tax credit percentage that you have told us you are entitled to claim from the Australian Taxation Office.

EXCESSES

When you make a claim, unless we determine that an excess is not applicable, you must pay all the applicable excesses which are set out in your Certificate of Insurance and which specifically relate to the circumstances of your claim. If required by us, you must pay all the applicable excesses before we provide you with any policy benefits.

Types of excesses which can be applied by us

The types of excesses applicable to the policy and the amount payable are shown on your Certificate of Insurance. Subject to the faultless excess additional benefit and depending on the circumstances in which the insured event occurred, the following excesses may apply:

This is the amount you are required to pay for each claim under the policy. Your chosen basic excess will be stated on your Certificate of Insurance.

You can choose the amount of excess you wish to pay when purchasing your policy. There are a range of basic excesses you can choose from for our Comprehensive Daily Drive Insurance product.

Your chosen excess amount may impact the premium you pay. For example, if you choose a higher excess this may reduce your premium.

Inexperienced and learner driver excess

An excess of $800 applies in addition to all other applicable excesses.

This excess will apply if at the time of the event giving rise to the claim your vehicle was driven by a person:

- who is under the age of 25; or
- of any age who has not held an Australian driving licence for more than 2 years; or
- of any age who holds a Learner's licence or permit.

This excess will not apply to claims involving fire, theft and malicious damage, broken windscreen or damage sustained while your car is parked.

Unlisted young driver excess

An excess of $800 applies in addition to all other applicable excesses. This excess will apply if your vehicle is driven by a person under the age of 25 who was not listed on the Certificate of Insurance at the time of the event giving rise to the claim.

This excess will not apply to claims involving fire, theft and malicious damage, broken windscreen, damage sustained while your car is parked or whilst being driven by a Learner driver.

Special excess

A special excess may be applied to your cover. Any such special excess may be based on the type of vehicle insured and the driving records and insurance history of the drivers of your vehicle. If we apply a special excess you will be advised in writing and the excess will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance and it will apply in addition to any other excess applicable to your claim.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Cost of your Insurance

When you buy this insurance, we will tell you the premium you must pay and note it on your Certificate of Insurance.

The premium you pay is based on a number of factors, including (but not limited to):

- the type of vehicle insured, its age and value;
- what your vehicle will be used for;
- the drivers, their driving and claims experience;
- where your vehicle will be parked; and
- your payment method.

You may reduce your premium by increasing your basic excess and taking advantage of our discount structure. You will also pay less if you pay your premium in one annual lump sum amount.

Your premium will also include amounts that take into account our obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (e.g. Stamp Duty and GST) in relation to your insurance. In cases where we are required to pay an estimated amount (e.g. emergency services levy) we may over or under recover in any particular year, but we will not adjust your premium because of this. You can ask us for more details if you wish.

Your premium may change on renewal. The premium change may either be driven by our pricing factors, your experience or changes to the vehicle you insure (such as additional modifications and accessories).

Cooling off period

We want you to be happy with the cover you have chosen, that is why we offer you a 14 day cooling off period.

If you decide that this insurance isn't for you, we allow you to cancel your policy within 14 days of the start or renewal date of your policy and receive a full refund of any premium paid (less any taxes or duties that we cannot recover), as long as you have not made a claim or otherwise exercised a right under the policy.

You must call us during this time for this to be effective otherwise you will not be entitled to a full refund of premium.

Even after this cooling off period ends you still have the right to cancel the policy (see "Cancelling the policy").

Cancelling the policy

You can cancel your policy at any time by calling us. If you have paid an annual premium, we will refund any premium which you have paid, less an amount that covers the period for which you were insured. There is no refund if you have been paying by monthly instalments. We may charge you a cancellation fee specified in the Certificate of Insurance which reasonably represents the administrative costs we believe will be incurred by us in processing the cancellation.

We can cancel the policy where permitted by law, in the following situations:

- if you do not comply with the policy terms and conditions;
- where you fail to pay your premium;
- where you make a fraudulent claim; or
- if you did not comply with your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation.

The Policy Administration Fee noted on your Certificate of Insurance for each risk is not refundable after the cooling off period.

Premium refunds

We do not refund via cheque. Any refund that may be payable because of policy amendments or cancellation will be made to your nominated bank or credit card account.

Renewing the policy

We will send a renewal notice to you at least 14 days before your insurance is due to expire telling you if we will renew and if so on what terms. Where we offer renewal, we will (unless we tell you otherwise) automatically renew your cover on the terms contained in the renewal offer. If you do not wish to renew the policy, or you wish to opt-out of future auto renewals of your policy, please contact us immediately.

You may have to pay an additional premium if you tell us about changes to the policy details and we advise you that these changes will increase your renewal premium.

Your cooling off period continues to apply on each renewal. Each renewal is a separate contract and not an extension of the prior contract.

This PDS applies to any offer of renewal We may make unless We tell you otherwise. It is important that you check the information shown before renewing each year to satisfy yourself that the details are correct.

Financial Claims Scheme

This Policy is a 'protected policy' under the Federal Government's Financial Claims Scheme (FCS). The FCS provides protection to policies issued by an insurer, in the unlikely event that the insurer fails and cannot meet its financial obligations, such as claim payouts.

The FCS entitles certain persons, who have valid claims connected with certain protected policies issued by that insurer to be paid certain amounts by APRA.

The FCS is administered by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA). Information about the FCS can be obtained from www.fcs.gov.au.

General Insurance Code of Practice

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOU

When you buy insurance from us (including on renewal), you have certain responsibilities that you must comply with. We can refuse to pay a claim, reduce the amount we pay or cancel the policy (subject to the operation of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) (the Act), if you or anyone covered by the policy:

- do not comply with your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation or make other misrepresentation to us, and/or
- fail to meet your responsibilities under the policy.

If fraud is involved, we can treat the policy as if it had never existed.

This policy and its terms are subject to and can be affected by the operation of the Act and you need to make sure you are aware of your rights under the Act.

Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

Before you enter into this contract of insurance, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. You have a similar duty when you ask us to vary, extend or reinstate the insurance and when we offer you the opportunity to renew your insurance. What that means is that you need to take reasonable care to provide honest, accurate and complete answers to any questions that we ask.

Specifically when you ask us to vary, extend or reinstate your insurance or before you renew your insurance, you need to take reasonable care to review any information that we provide to you for your confirmation and to inform us of any changes, where the information is no longer honest, accurate and complete.

If you are not sure of the answers to any of our questions, or whether the information you previously provided remains honest, accurate and complete, you should take the time to check and find out. It is also important to understand that, in answering the questions and checking the information, you are answering for yourself and anyone else to whom the questions apply.

As we use your answers to decide what insurance we will offer, to calculate your premium, and to assess any claim you make, it is essential that you contact us if you have any doubts.

If you do not take reasonable care in answering our questions, or to inform us of any changes, you may breach your duty. If that happens, your policy may be cancelled, or treated as if never existed, and any claim may be denied or not paid in full.

If your circumstances make it difficult for you to work out how to answer any of our questions, or you are not clear how to explain your situation to us, you should contact us to discuss your queries.

Who do the above obligations apply to?

The obligations apply to you and everyone that is an insured under the policy. If you provide information for another insured you represent to us you have authority from them to do so and it is as if they provided it to us.

Managing your sum insured

It is your responsibility to ensure that the nominated sum insured is adequate, you should continue to reassess the sum insured during the term of the policy and prior to renewal each year.

Tell us about any changes that may affect your cover or premium

You need to tell us immediately if any details on your Certificate of Insurance are incorrect or have changed, including if:

- your vehicle was converted, altered or modified from its manufacturer's specifications and is no longer roadworthy or legal within the state/territory it is registered;
- anyone who is shown on the Certificate of Insurance has, over the past 5 years, had changes to their:
 - driving record including cancellation, suspension and/or driving conditions imposed on their driver's licence;
 - criminal history.

Changes that you advise us of may affect the premium you need to pay for the remainder of the period of insurance. If a lower premium applies you will be refunded the difference less our reasonable charge for administrative and processing costs where applicable. In situations where an additional premium applies it must be paid by you immediately.

If the change results in you no longer meeting our underwriting criteria, we may decide not to insure your vehicle, cancel your policy or decide not to offer renewal.

Tell us about any finance on your vehicle

If you have borrowed money using your vehicle as security, you must inform us so that we can record the financier's interest on your Certificate of Insurance. This includes circumstances where you lease or have a hire purchase agreement on your vehicle. During the period of insurance your financier's interests will be covered under the policy as noted on your Certificate of Insurance, however the same policy terms and conditions will also apply to them (where relevant).

Tell us if you replace your vehicle

If you replace your vehicle during the period of insurance, we may continue your cover on your new vehicle, however you must notify us before such cover will take effect. When you tell us that you have replaced your vehicle we may charge you an additional premium, add special terms and conditions or cancel the policy. We will not cover any pre-existing damage on your new vehicle.

Ensure your premiums are always paid

It is your responsibility to ensure your premiums are paid in full either annually or monthly. If we do not receive payment by the due date, we may cancel the policy. We will not pay any claims if your premium remains unpaid for at least 14 days or more.

You must be authorised to make payments from the bank account or credit card details you provide to us. You must also ensure that your nominated bank account or credit card has sufficient funds when we collect payments. We will attempt to collect payment on the start date of your period of insurance. If the policy remains unpaid we will attempt to collect payment at regular intervals determined by us. Any fees that your bank may charge you including dishonour fees are your responsibility.

Instalment payments

You may be eligible to pay your premium in regular monthly instalments by way of direct debit from your bank or credit card account. The total premium we charge may be higher when you pay in instalments than when you pay one annual lump sum amount. The nominated bank or credit card account must be able to accept direct debits and you must be an authorised signatory on that account.

You must ensure that you have sufficient funds in the account to meet the debits. All bank charges and dishonour fees are your responsibility. You must notify us immediately if your nominated account or credit card is transferred, closed, payments stopped or if you cancel your direct debit payment plan, and supply us with alternative account details, no less than 7 business days prior to the date of your next debit. If you cancel the debit completely you will need to arrange for another way to pay us your premium to ensure that you remain covered. Please note that as an alternative, payments can only be accepted via either direct debit or another credit card.

If you don't pay a premium instalment by the due date:

- we may cancel your policy if the unpaid premium remains in arrears for more than thirty (30) days; and
- if at least one instalment has remained unpaid for a period of at least fourteen (14) days then we may refuse to pay your claim/s.

If we cancel your policy due to non-payment of an instalment premium you need to be aware that:

- no benefits or entitlements can be paid under your policy;
- you will receive written confirmation that your policy has been cancelled;
- we may refuse to provide cover to you under any policy in the future; and
- any application for general insurance products in the future may be affected because you had a policy cancelled as a result of unpaid premiums.

We will keep all information regarding your nominated bank account or credit card private and confidential at all times. Please refer to our Privacy Policy located on our website (www.club4x4.com.au).

Other responsibilities for those covered by the policy

You or any other person who is covered under the policy must:

- follow all the conditions set out in the policy and Certificate of Insurance;
- take all reasonable precautions to prevent loss, damage or legal liability even after an insured event;
- keep your vehicle, its tools, parts and accessories in good condition (e.g. serviced, free of rust etc.);
- keep proof of ownership and value of insured property (e.g. receipts, invoices, bank statements, contracts of sale and photographs).
